pink week show 2008

(a juried exhibition to celebrate the color pink)

In celebration of the fifteenth annual pink week Tangent Gallery in Sacramento will be hosting pink week exhibitions. Pink week is a holiday created simply to let pink just be pink, a color and nothing more. One very special week out of the year to let colors just be colors, in this case, pink for pink's sake. For more information about pink week, the holiday, the project, the phenomenon, please visit www.pinkweek.org

ELIGIBILITY

This exhibition is open to all artists everywhere. All media will be considered however, the color pink must be significantly present and dimensions of the work should not exceed 24 x 36 inches. Film and video entries will be considered but artist must provide viewing equipment.

HOW TO ENTER

Make some pink artwork, take some digital pics and put the following things in an envelope pronto. Be sure your entry arrives before the deadline on OCTOBER 25th.

- One filled out application
- CD with digital images of up to 3 pieces
Detail shots or multiple views are fine but do not exceed 10 total
- CD will not be returned
Videos may be returned if SASE is provided

-Please use a marker to label the CD with your name, phone number and email

OR

You may submit your work to the jury online by emailing your images and application information to: tangentgallery@gmail.com

Please put the words PINK WEEK ENTRY in the subject line.

SHIPPING

The artist will be solely responsible for all costs associated with shipping their artwork to and from the exhibition. For artists in the Sacramento hand delivery will be an option. Details will follow once work has been selected for the show.

SALES

You will be further informed on this subject upon acceptance in the show. In the event of a sale, 30% will go to the gallery.
